"The Morning of the Crucifixion"

This oil painting is by artist Astley David Middleton Cooper. It is on display in the Plymouth County Historical Museum in the Religious Room, across the hall from the Westmar Memorial Room. In this painting Christ is nearing his moment of death on the cross. The painting, completed in 1892 is 11 by 13 feet in size.

This painting was donated by Rev Mark Fiester and his wife, Westmar alumni Roberta Dexheimer Fiester '31, of Denver, CO in 1988. The City of LeMars took over ownership of the painting when the college closed in 1997. The City gifted the painting to the Museum in 2005.

Artist Cooper, born in St. Louis, MO, attended Washington University, and traveled throughout the West. He settled in San Francisco in 1882 and worked as an illustrator for Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper. He became famous during this period as a painter of the Old West and Indians.

Cooper was primarily a painter of western scenes, and this oil is one of his rare religious works.

An engraving of "The Morning of the Crucifixion" appeared in The Light of the World, a collection of great paintings published in 1898 to depict the life of Jesus Christ.

Each year on Good Friday a special viewing is held beginning at 11 am but the painting can be viewed any time.

'IPTV to provide coverage of the 50th anniversary of the Tinker v Des Moines Schools decision'

The live stream will begin at 12:30 p.m. Friday, Feb 22 and is part of the State Historical Society of Iowa's day-long event, A Celebration of Tinker v. Des Moines Supreme Court Decision. The live stream is free and also available on YouTube and Facebook.

This will be a presentation and discussion with Mary Beth and John Tinker, moderated by Radio Iowa's Kay Henderson. The Tinkers will reflect on the stance they took that resulted in the 1969 U S. Supreme Court decision.

This is a case about a small group of students wearing black arm bands to school to protest the war in Vietnam. This led the students and family on a fouryear court battle that culminated in the landmark decision.

(Information provided by the State Historical Society of Iowa, a division of the Iowa Department of Cultural Affairs.)

Westmar's connection to the coverage of the 50th anniversary of the Tinker v. Des Moines Schools decision handed down in 1969 by U. S. Supreme Court helped define First Amendment student free speech. Don Johnston '60 argued this case before the Supreme Court 50 years ago, just one year after completing Law School. He was 30 years of age.

Johnston was given a lifetime achievement award by the American Civil Liberties Union of Iowa for defending the freedoms of others in 2014. The Louise Noun Award is named for a longtime activist and civil rights fighter in Iowa who was a close friend of Johnston's which he said makes the award more special. This award is given for significant contributions to civil rights in Iowa.

Dan served a term in the Iowa General Assembly from 1967-68 and later served as the Polk County Attorney from 1977 - 1985.

Dan was an avid Sailor and a member of the Harlem Yacht Club in New York City where he lived from 1972 until 1977 and from 1985 until 2012. While in New York, Dan served on the board of the Gay Men Health Crisis and the New York police complaint review board. Dan also spent time in Washington D.C., working for the National Center for State Courts and on the Criminal Justice Subcommittee of the U.S. House Judiciary Committee.

Dan continued to practice after returning to Iowa in 2012 with the Law firm Glazebrook, Moe, & Hurd, LLP. Along with his colleague Joseph Glazebrook and attorneys from Lambda Legal, Dan succeeded in bringing about important reforms to Iowa's badly outdated HIV laws.

He died on October 21, 2016 of cancer at the age of 78. His obituary can be found with photo at https:// www.legacy.com/obituaries/desmoinesregister/ obituary.aspx?pid=182060960

Alumni News

Dear Westmar Football and Basketball Players of the 70's and 80's:

Let's go back in time for a few minutes. The school year is 1970-71. Coach Martin is in his first year as head football coach, following the legendary Coach Scott. Coach Martin – in his own right – has already established esteemed status as the wrestling coach. Coach Marty and Coach Ulrich have continued to lead the highly successful cross country program. Coach Knutson continues to build a winning basketball program that reached a pinnacle in 1969 when it earned a trip to the National Tournament in Kansas City. Coach Knutson followed up with a conference champion-ship in baseball. Coach Wiltgen just began his tenure as the head coach of a highly successful track program, again following Coach Scott. Coach Divelbiss led a competitive tennis program, as did Coach Larson in golf.

This May, we would like to celebrate the men's football and basketball teams of the 70's and 80's. We hope you can join us. Our goal is to have at least 150 Westmar football and basketball players at the Reunion. GO EAGLES!!!

- Please complete the Registration form and return it ASAP to WAFA. We will then add your name to the "List of those registered to attend."
- Please provide us with your e-mail address at WAFA@westmarcollege.org so that we can send you reunion updates via e-mail.

If your plans change and you can't make it to the reunion, a full refund is available until May 1, 2019

'65–Carol Lange, Platteville, WI writes that her life has been busy. "I continue to be on the South West District Team (WI) of the United Methodist Women, I'm president of the WI State Church Women United and I'm on the National Nominating Committee of Church Women United. Yes, I do have a few aches and pains, but at 80 years that can be expected. Generally, I'm in good health and in good physical condition.

Last summer I did take a few road trips and became the Platteville version of 'The Little Old Lady from Pasadena.' Im gearing up for another trip in February. I'll be heading south to attend the annual meeting of the CWU Nominating Committee at the Nazareth Retreat Center in suburban Dallas. Since I haven't traveled to that region of the US, I think the drive is in order.

When you donate in Honor or in Memory of someone, a page is placed in this special book just inside the Westmar Memorial Room. It contains a photo if possible and a biographical sketch of that person. If a donation is made to someone who already has a page, the donors name will be added to that page. All donors are noted at the bottom of the page.

New Source for Westmar Clothing Items:

We are working with Get Branded 360, a local screen printer, to provide you with more styles, colors, and sizes of Westmar clothing items directly. Lisa Holtgrew Whitehead, class of '90 and Westmar staff from 1990-1997, has done a tremendous job of setting this up. The big advantage is that they print as things are ordered so can offer more styles, designs, colors and sizes than we could possibly have in stock. They are also donating a portion of each sale to WAFA! Available now.

Check out their site at https:// www.getbranded360.com/ecommerce/ wafa-westmar.html Shirt and hats for the sports reunion can be ordered from Get Branded 360 https://www.getbranded360.com/ecommerce/ wafa-westmar.html and ask for reunion items......

We still have many items in stock in the WAFA office and would like to sell them as well. Please check our web page for availability. CD's/DVD's available for Chorale and special events are only available through WAFA. Let everyone know You Went to Westmar!!!
